THE INTERNATIONAL SUMMIT

ALLIANCE SPONSOR - $12,500

Speaking opportunity

- Have an executive from your organization introduce a session topic; or join us as a guest speaker during opening or closing remarks

Sponsored content opportunity

- Choose your content opportunity: The Cipher Brief can either broadcast a :30 second video about your organization during the conference; promote your organization's downloadable content during a session or allow your organization to publish an article in The Cipher Brief before or after the conference.

Interactive content opportunity

- Are you interested in collecting market research from a live audience of international security leaders? We'll invite a representative from your organization to introduce a live poll question to the audience and facilitate the gathering of insights on the spot during the conference for you. We'll also announce your company as the poll sponsor.

Branding opportunities

- Your company's logo on all conference materials including conference slides and promotion of your organization as event sponsor across all Cipher Brief social media channels and an audience of 40K+
